

PREPOSITIONS WITH ADJECTIVES

Exercise 1:

Tick the best answer.

1 - I'm afraid _____ spiders.

of to from by

2 - I'm keen _____ English literature.

of to from on

3 - They're bored _____ the English phonetics.

of with about by

4 - He's jealous _____ her success.

with by of for

5 - They are excited _____ their trip to England next June.

about by of for

Exercise 2:

Choose the best preposition to complete the sentences.

1. I am very proud _____ my younger daughter.

2. If you are serious _____ going to Iceland for our next holidays, let's do it.

3. The new iPhone is very popular _____ young customers.

4. South Africa is rich _____ natural resources like diamonds and gold.

5. I always travel by car or boat because I am scared _____ flying.

6. He has very little experience, but I think he'll be capable _____ running his father's business.

7. We would be very interested _____ discussing the idea of a trip to London.

8. Sony are famous _____ their electronic goods.

9. The new computer is similar _____ the previous model, but it has some interesting new features.

PREPOSITIONS WITH ADJECTIVES

- 10. We are pleased _____ this year's results. They are much better than expected.
- 11. I'm not sure if he is aware _____ of the fact that he is going to be fired.
- 12. You'll find a PDF document attached _____ the e-mail that I sent you.
- 13. Some people are fed up _____ their daily routine.
- 14. We were enthusiastic _____ learning English but after this exercise we aren't anymore!

Exercise 3:

Look at the adjective, which preposition usually comes after them?

- 1. good
- 2. happy
- 3. satisfied
- 4. nervous
- 5. bad
- 6. worried
- 7. surprised
- 8. concerned
- 9. upset
- 10. embarrassed

Exercise 4:

Complete with the appropriate preposition.

Accustomed 	Frightened
Dependent 	Doubtful
Doubtful 	Sorry
Fond 	Guilty
Opposed 	Cruel
Related 	Used

