We have just learned that the Local Council has new plans for Summer Park in Staplehurst, Kent.

The Council (sell) the land to a builder, Nathan and Somerville. The plans are ready.

«We (build) fifty houses » said Mr Samuel Nathan.

« In two years' time everything (be) finished.

I'm sure many people (like) the houses. Most of them (be) for young families.

We also intend to take care of the environment.

We (not / cut) down any of the trees.

Of course, the inhabitants of staplehurst are rather angry and sad.

« This is a terrible idea. We are against it » said Mrs Ann Middleton.

«We (have) a protest march next Saturday.

I expect everyone in the village (participate).

We've reached our decision, we (stop) this project.
